1. I attended a meeting of the Financial Policy and Budget Review Committee, along with [REDACTED] at noon today. This was to discuss a letter which the Director had received from the Bureau of the Budget about our Fiscal Year 1965 level so that John Bross could brief the Director later today in preparation for his meeting with the Director of the Bureau of the Budget tomorrow.

5. Bob Bannerman advised me that Dick Helms had announced that [REDACTED] would become the Deputy Director of Security on 1 October 1963 at his staff meeting last Wednesday, 3 July. Bob therefore announced this at his staff meeting today. In addition, Bob said that Dick had made it known also that it was contemplated that [REDACTED] would become the Director of Security about 1 July 1964, at which time Bob would become the Assistant Deputy Director (Support). Bob also has informed his staff that this is the long-range plan. 25X1A
